Day - 2 Mexico City

COYOACÁN - XOCHIMILCO - UNIVERSITY OF MEXICO (B)

Today you dive into the vibrant life of Mexico City and enjoy the variety that only a few other cities can offer. Coyoacán will sweep you off your feet with its colourful colonial style and refreshing spirit. It is well known for having been the domicile of Frida Kahlo, you will visit a typical market while you are in Coyoacán. In the afternoon you can see the pre-Columbian cultivation of flowers in the water, while you are driven on the trajineras (punts) through the watery canal gardens of Xochimilco. On your way back to the hotel you make a stop at the UNESCO awarded wall murals of the University of Mexico.
