

Beauty Of Armenia And Artsakh

This tour is the longest one which stretches from the south to north and from the east to west including the most remarkable sights of Armenia together with Artsakh. During this tour you will have the opportunity to see 10 of them as well as NagornoKarabakh with its fascinating nature and historical places. During your cultural/historical tour you will get acquainted with Armenian culture and cuisine while communicating with the locals and feel the similarities as well as differences between traditions, customs and people of Armenia and Artsakh. This journey will show you the most popular major sights and attractions in the quite remote areas of two countries.

Day - 8 Dilijan

Jermuk / Selim / Sevan / Dilijan / Yerevan (B/L)

After breakfast departure to Lake Sevan through Selim pass which has been an important trade point in famous Silk Road. Sightseeing on the peninsula where Sevanavanq is located. The monastic complex is located on the peninsula. At one time the monastery was one of the main religious centers, but gradually the monastery got empty. We need to climb up many stairs to reach the monastery from where opens a spectacular view to the "blue-eyed" lake. The picturesque Geghama Mountains surround the lake. Lunch at the local restaurant. Drive to the resort town of Dilijan.
