

Serbia In 10 Days

You'll experience all the diversity that Serbia has to offer, from Vojvodina plains in the North, to the biggest gorge of Europe on the Danube in the East. Together with mountains and intact nature in the West and relaxed atmosphere of the South, with getting to know Belgrade, of course.

Day - 1 Village Mala Vrbica

MEETING, TOPOLA TOWN, OPLENAC ROYAL MAUSOLEUM AND VILLAGE HOME STAY (L, D)

After meeting with your guide you will continue straight to Šumadija to town of Topola. Renewal of modern Serbian state commenced here in 1804. On the tip of Oplenac hill you'll visit Royal mausoleum, church where 27 members of royal family are buried. From this point onward we are only enjoying Šumadija wine. Three wineries are on our list: Royal wine cellar, established in 1930s by Serbian king, then prominent Serbian winery Aleksandrović and as a highlight of wine exploration, young family owned winery. They will serve lunch with their matching wines.

Rest of the day we'll spend in household House of Petrović. Warm hosts from the guesthouse will show you from firsthand how local people live in Serbian village nowadays.
