

Serbia In 10 Days

You'll experience all the diversity that Serbia has to offer, from Vojvodina plains in the North, to the biggest gorge of Europe on the Danube in the East. Together with mountains and intact nature in the West and relaxed atmosphere of the South, with getting to know Belgrade, of course.

Day - 3 Mokra Gora

SARGAN EIGHT TRAIN AND VIŠEGRAD (B, L, D)

If voices of birds don't wake you up, smell of Zlatibor food will. After the breakfast we head to Mokra gora town. Here you'll experience most attractive narrow track railway in this part of Europe, famous Sargan Eight train. When we finish with the train ride, we will cross to Bosnia to visit Višegrad with famous bridge over river Drina dating from the XVI century. Yugoslavian writer Ivo Andrić who wrote the novel with the same name Bridge over Drina won the Nobel Prize in 1962. Here you'll enjoy a boat ride on Drina River with a local captain and lunch on Drina bank.

After lunch we'll return to Mokra gora and to Kustendorf ethnic village. The complex is creation of our famous film director Emir Kusturica. You have rest of the day for yourself.
