

Serbia In 10 Days

You'll experience all the diversity that Serbia has to offer, from Vojvodina plains in the North, to the biggest gorge of Europe on the Danube in the East. Together with mountains and intact nature in the West and relaxed atmosphere of the South, with getting to know Belgrade, of course.

Day - 5 Niš

STUDENICA, ŽIŽA, NIŠ (B, L)

In the morning of the fifth day we'll explore Studenica monastery. Its churches, architecture and frescoes, together with spirituality and heritage are corner stone of Serbian Orthodox church. From here we will get down to the valley of river Ibar, also known as The valley of kings. This name is result of numerous endowments built by Serbian medieval rulers. Here we'll stop for lunch in a special place, a local tavern ran by the same family for 200 years. After lunch next stop is monastery Žiža from the XIII century. This one has different appearance compared to any other Serbian monastery. You'll learn the reasons for this on the spot.

Final destination for the day is Niš, economic and cultural center of south and third biggest city in Serbia. You'll have the rest of the day to explore Niš on your own. Tips and recommendations will be provided.

Overnight: Niš
