

Serbia In 10 Days

You'll experience all the diversity that Serbia has to offer, from Vojvodina plains in the North, to the biggest gorge of Europe on the Danube in the East. Together with mountains and intact nature in the West and relaxed atmosphere of the South, with getting to know Belgrade, of course.

Day - 8 Belgrade

BELGRADE EXPLORATION (B, L)

We'll take you first to Belgrade fortress, the most iconic Belgrade landmark. Then from the fortress we move to other part of the city, posh Dedinje. You'll visit House of flowers, which is eternal home of former Yugoslavian president Tito. #YourSerbiaHost will explain how Tito's cult was nurtured during his life, but also long after he was gone. From controversial Yugoslavian dictator's tomb we'll take you to a holy place, to St. Sava church. This the biggest Orthodox temple in the Balkans is dedicated to true saint who was born in the XII and who brought autonomy to Serbian Orthodox Church in the XIII century.

When we finish this part of exploration we'll take you to a restaurant in the neighborhood, where local food is prepared in modern manner. After lunch we'll switch to the other side of the river, to Zemun. This old part of the city was actually separate town till 1934. Stroll along Danube promenade or walk to the Gardoš hill and drink in one of the local cafe's will make you fill like a local.

Rest of the day you have free to explore Belgrade on your own. Tips and recommendations will be provided.
