

Serbia In 10 Days

You'll experience all the diversity that Serbia has to offer, from Vojvodina plains in the North, to the biggest gorge of Europe on the Danube in the East. Together with mountains and intact nature in the West and relaxed atmosphere of the South, with getting to know Belgrade, of course.

Day - 9 Novi Sad

FRUŠKA GORA AND NOVI SAD (B, L)

After breakfast you will travel straight to Vojvodina region and its sole mountain Fruška gora. Here you'll visit monastery Krušedol from the XVI century and then you'll continue to town of Sremski Karlovci. Next stop is Petrovaradin fortress, where you'll learn why it took 88 years for the complex to be completed. Lunch and gourmet part of the day is planned in a small wine cellar where wine maker is also a cook. He will serve his homemade food and match it with his fine wines.

After lunch it'll take only 15 minutes to reach your Hotel where you'll stay for the overnight. You have rest of the day free to enjoy Novi Sad on your own. Tips and recommendations will be provided.
